

SERVICE OFFERS APTITUDE TESTS

Local residents will have an opportunity to take aptitude and vocational guidance tests next Saturday, Jan. 9, from 1 to 4 p.m. A group of nine tests including the IQ will be given to several people at the same time, then appointments for private interpretation will be made. Paul W. Stauffer, counselor and member of the Service staff will administer the tests.

FAITH ...backed by dollars

When you see telephone lines going up, you see proof your telephone company believes in the future of your community.

Your company backs that faith by investing millions of dollars to improve your service. Many of your neighbors share its faith, too. Some show it by investing their savings; others by investing their careers; some by doing both.

It's faith...and partnership like this...that keeps America great.

Catholics Set Assemblymen To Address South Bay GOP Women Tomorrow Card Party

Busy these days with plans for their second big social of the club year, a festive evening card party at Nativity Parish Hall on Monday, Jan. 25, are members of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America. The event, coupled with the traditional fall garden party which features a luncheon, fashion show, and card games, sparks the club's calendar each year. Card play will begin at 8 p.m., and refreshments will be served.

Anyone wishing to attend may purchase tickets now from any member of the Court or pick them up at the door the night of the affair.

Groundwork for the occasion was laid last Monday night when Court officers met at the 1420 Acacia Ave. home of Mrs. Joseph MacDonald. Appointed as general chairmen by Mrs. John P. Gitschler, grand regent, were Mesdames John Melville and Cecil Moore.

The two chairmen will put their heads together with Helen Meyers, Lucille Lewellen, Florence Turner, Annette Beck, Regina Cunningham, Mildred Probert, and Theresa Finlayson to coordinate ticket sales and plan the refreshment menu. A committee report will feature next Monday night's meeting of the Court, to be held in the parish hall.

Charles Edward Chapel, Assemblyman of the 46th District, which includes the coastal section of Torrance, will introduce Silliman, who has chosen "Republican Leadership Looks Ahead" as his topic.

Assemblyman Silliman was first elected to the Assembly in 1946 and has served continuously since then in many important capacities. Mrs. Clayton Thomas, president-elect of the South Bay Club, said:

"He has shown his direct interest in many fiscal items of importance to the 46th District in general and the South Bay communities in particular. He also is credited with giving his full support to Assemblyman Chapel in the passage of appropriation bills for combating salt water intrusion in Manhattan Beach, the sea wall and potential harbor at Redondo Beach, a National Guard Army in Inglewood, and other projects.

"An ex-officio member of the Joint Interim Committee on Marine Affairs and Bay Area Development, Assemblyman Silliman has participated in studies of potential harbors at Playa del Rey and Redondo Beach, a new beach development at Manhattan Beach, and the rebuilding of the pier at Hermosa Beach." Assemblyman Chapel will outline the main provisions of the bill he authored calling for heavier sentences for adults who sell or give narcotics to minors. The South Bay Club has written a letter to Gov. Goodwin J. Knight urging him to place the proposal, Assembly Bill No. 85, on the agenda for the March 1954 session of the Legislature.

Chapel also will install the 1954 panel of club officers at tomorrow's session. To be seated are the following: Mrs. Thomas of Redondo Beach; Eileen Hammond of Palos Verdes Estates, first vice-president; Herbert Tenny of Palos Verdes Estates, second vice-president; O. B. Lawson of El Segundo, secretary; Neta Livingston of Redondo Beach treasurer; Robert Thorburn, director of El Segundo; James Gallagher, director of Manhattan Beach; Paul Yates, director of Hermosa Beach; Maude Smith, director of Redondo Beach; Willard Key, director of Hollywood Riviera; and W. G. Jerrens III, director of Palos Verdes Estates.

Prominent Republican leaders invited to attend include Mrs. Jean Fuller, president of the California Federation of Republican Women; Mrs. Cecil Kenyon, president of the Southern Division of the California Federation of Republican Women; Mrs. Mildred Younger, vice-chairman of the California State Central Committee; Mrs. Blanche Ford Williams, president of the Los Angeles County Federation of Republican Women; and mayors of all South Bay cities.

Young Torrance pianists, students of Gladys McDougall Evans and Linda Wiese will be presented in recital next Monday, Jan. 11, at 8 p.m., at the Torrance Woman's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave.

The Boys Choir from St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will open the program, which will feature two specialty numbers, accordion selections by Sonya Joyce and vocal personality duets by Vicki Hippik and Donna Ritchie.

Piano selections will be played by Norene Johnson, Robert Stevenson, Walter Cotton, Devon Perkins, Charlie McNeese, Curtis Manning, Billy Herman, Jane Strohm, Charles Cayton, Judy Roberts, Donald Dobrick, Carol Helte, Leonard Sanders, LaVerne Lewis, Patrick Manning, Bill Strohm, Charles Cayton, Judy Lee Bowlds, and Rickie Bernardin.

PTA Prexy Fetes Board

Mrs. James McMillan, president of 186th St. PTA, entertained the executive board at her home recently with a post-holiday party featuring games, a gift exchange, and refreshments.

Attending the event were Mesdames Donald Meredith, C. H. Bennett, R. J. Farmer, Ronald Powell, J. T. Evans Jr., W. C. Attebery, W. S. Stewart, and B. B. Burrus. Other holiday activities of the PTA included a party staged by room mothers for the school children, a potluck luncheon, and a spaghetti-um cake dinner with Gardena-Wilmington Council PTA members as guests. Table decorations at the latter event were done by Mrs. R. Stith, art chairman, and her staff.

Herald Columnist To Begin New Lecture Series Jan. 11

"Families Can Be Fun," will start off a six-lecture series by Mrs. Dorothy Law, counselor and instructor in parent education and family relations columnist for the Herald, next Monday night, Jan. 11, at North Torrance Elementary School. Sponsored by the school PTA in cooperation with the Torrance School of Adult Education, each lecture will be given from 8 to 10 p.m. on successive Mondays at the same site, with all moms and dads invited to attend.

Mrs. Law will stress the necessity for parents to keep up with child psychology during her first lecture. The following talk on Jan. 18, titled "Fulfilling Your Child's Emotional Needs," will tell what makes the child tick.

"Problems in Growing Up" will be discussed by Mrs. Law on Jan. 25, and parents will get hints to help them understand the fears and complexities of their children. Sex education, by whom, when, and how much, will be emphasized in her Feb. 1 lecture, which is titled "Answering Your Child's Questions."

"Creative Family Living," a discussion of parent-child problems, such as allowances and household chores, will be discussed on Feb. 8, while the concluding lecture on Feb. 15, "Building for the Future," will tell what good mental health is.

Plans for fun-filled evenings with a real pioneer spirit keynote the agenda Monday night when the Ladies Auxiliary of the Torrance Fire Department met at McMaster Hall.

The "Fireladies" will entertain firemen of the A and B shifts at two box socials, slated for Feb. 11 and 12. Mrs. James Wass, chairman, will select a setting for the affairs and appoint her committee during the next few weeks.

Also highlighting the session was a talk on the growth and history of Torrance by Mrs. Dorothy Jamieson, local librarian. Joining the membership for the program were Mesdames Roy Holloman, Ernest Katzorke, Stanley Sellers, Alvin Stratton, and Robert Ward.

Cake and coffee, served by Mesdames Don Lamb and Wass, climaxed the evening.
